Why are you interested in attending the Little Bighorn Institute? Please write a short essay (no more than one page) on an attached piece of paper.

Meals: Please list any dietary restrictions.

Health: The pace of the Little Bighorn Institute will be intense. Participants will be asked to walk a distance of ½ mile. We will visit an archaeological site that is at 9,600 feet. Please let us know if you have any medical conditions that would affect your full participation.

Tipi Assignments: If you know of another participant whom you would like as a roommate, please state the person's name. If not, tipimates will be assigned according to gender.

Requested Tipimate: _____

While attending the Little Bighorn Institute you will camp in a tipi along the Little Bighorn River. All meals will be provided starting with dinner on Thursday evening (June 25) through lunch on Sunday (June 28). We will provide a cot, but we ask you to bring personal items, clothing, toiletries and a bedroll. The Institute will be held at the Little Big Horn College, and we will have access to showers at the College.
